ekey Dwyer Wins the Handleap for Senator McCarren in a Gallop—Two Baces for Sidney Paget—Big Crowd at Aqueduct Track Enjoys Good Sport.

all of 15,000 persons enjoyed an afternoon fine sport at Aqueduct yesterday. Aland incidentally took off many hats, the spacing weather made the outing particularly ajoyable. Every winner was well backed tren though only two favorites and a second spon though only two favorites and a second sholes rewarded the form players. The harverne Stakes, for three-year-olds, at seven briongs, was the star feature. With Ahumuda, the Carter Handicap winner, and Chicle stratched, there was a field of eight, as Cranes-yille was an added starter. The favorite was "Virginia" Bradley's Ahola, Wilkerson ap., who was played down from threes to the favorite of the control of the contro 5. Green B. Morris's Durazzo was choice at fours, with Cranesville at second choice at fours, with Cranesvine actives, W. R. Condon at sixes, Dr. Saylor and Elyria at eights and Colonist at twelves, all of whom were liberally supported. They were sent away to a good start, and Illyria sroceeded to make the running, attended to make the running. by Ahola, Colonist, Durazzo and Dr. Saylor.
Near the far turn Colonist was shut off and never had a chance after that. Coming flown the stretch the race was reduced to a duel between Ahola and Illyria. Wilkerand paid all of his attention to Father Bill Daly's colt, and did not see Dr. Saylor, who sheaked through on the rail in the last six-Menth and under a heavy drive from Burns won the stake by a head in 1:29 1-5. Ahola beat Illyria a length, the latter being a head before Durazzo, with the others strung out. For the handicap at seven furlongs, which was the last race on the card, Mackey Dwie:

was made an odds: on favorite, with Flying Buttress second in favor and Ethics, carrying suttress second in favor and Ethics, carrying top weight, 120 pounds, finding supporters at fives. Flying Buttress made the running, with Mackey Dwyer always within striking distance until the run home began, when Jurns let Senator McCarren's colt down and he latter won by three lengths in 1.28, Flying Juttress holding the place from Ethics by ive lengths.

the latter won by tiree lengths in 1.28, Flying Buttress holding the place from kinics by the lengths.

The talent was considerably at sea over the first race, a selling event at five furlongs. There was a heavy plunge on Isia, who was backed down from 2 to 1 to 9 to 5 favorite, and also a plunge on Cassville, who won the first race at Aqueduct on Wednesday and who closed at fours. True Blue was another supposed good thing, who caught a lot of money at sevens. Frank Farrell's Armeath, though broken in wind, was backed at the last moment from fifteens down to twelves, and in a rathing finish he landed the long end of the purse by a head, with breen B. Morris's Homestead, 15 to 1, running into the place before Andrattus, 12 to 1, who with a place before Andrattus, 12 to 1, who with True Blue, Ocean Dream and Cassville finished heads and necks apart. Cassville made all the running and looked like a winner at the last furlong pole.

Fydney Paget's colors were carried to victory for the first time on a local track in the second race for two-year-olds at four and a half furlongs. His Bassetlaw-Victoria Cross gelding Valour, with Redfern in the saddle, was a heavily backed favorite at 2 to 1. "Virginia" Bradley's Peter Paul, receding to 7 to 2, with R. T. Wilson, Jr's. Bronx and Green B. Morris's Knobhampton proving magnets for money at sixes and swens respectively. Peter Paul showed the way with Foxhall P. Keene's Wizard played down to 20 to 1 and Valour in close attendence to the middle of the stretch, where Redfern put Valour under a hard drive, the latter winning by a half a length from Wizard, who beat Peter Paul a length. The time was 0.36. Bronx was practically left to the meeting to-date.

the colt finished in front there were wild cheers from "Big Tim's" constituents, who came from the Bowery with bulging pockets ready to back the tip to the limit. Former Commissioner F. J. Lantry's Dr. Saylor was the third good thing which caught the Tammany money and it was spread all over the ring at 8 to 1 with a confidence that was unmistakable. There were many cases of heart disease during the running of the race, but when Burns landed the Rossington colt winner by a head a terrific yell went up all over the track, the happiness extending from "Papa Joe" and the Bowery dealers to the big men who run the Democratic machine in Fourteenth street. As a final reminder of their presence the politicians and their friends poured the money into the ring on Senator Patrick H. Patrick H. McCarren's Mackey Dwyer to win the last race, and again when Burns returned the coit a winner there was a celebration which lasted all the way home from the track and was going on at a late hour last night. So far the bookmakers since the opening of Aqueduct have suffered heavy losses, the number of men doing business in the ring being diminished each day. Many a bank roll dug up during the winter in a mysterious way has been crimped to such an extent that until the tide turns no more rash chances will be taken with the talent.

Many notables made their first appearance at the track this seasos. Senator McCarren came down from Albany to see Mackey Dwyer run and he was greatly pleased with the showing of the colt who has developed into a fine race horse and is pelleved to have a chance in some of the early handleaps. the track teams of Pratt Institute of Brooklyn and Dwight School of this city were protested. Dwight protected Pratt last Thursday, and Pratt in return protested Dwight on Friday. The management tried to settle the protests before the games started, but no conclusion was reached and as a result the athletes representing both these institutions who won prizes had to go without their medals. It was the first time in the history of interscholastic sport that a whole team has been protested by any school, and it will take quite some time for matters to be straightened out. of interscholastic sport time for matters to be straightened out.
